

ONE CASE, FOLLOWED END TO END

Re-constitution of a Committee

Satsang Place Ludhiana-III — two members continue, three sewadars are added.
Each addition carries its bio-data on SCI-02; all of it travels on one SCI-52.

SCI-52 — Constitution / Reconstitution of Committee

SCI-02 — Bio Data for Appointment of Functionaries

Nine steps, from the Secretary opening New Dak to the approval returning to the Satsang Place. Every screen, number and status shown is taken from the prototype as it stands.

THE CASE

What is being proposed

THE COMMITTEE TODAY — 2 MEMBERS

NAME	DESIGNATION	SEWA	PROPOSED
Sh. Jaswant Rai	S — Secretary	20 yrs	continues
Sh. Harbans Lal	P — President	25 yrs	continues

Both are already on the place record, with father’s name, qualification, date of birth and date of initiation. Nothing about them has to be typed again.

PROPOSED ADDITIONS — 3 SEWADARS

NAME	DESIGNATION	PARTICULARS	BIO-DATA
Sh. Ravinder Singh	M — Member	B.Com. · Business	SCI-02 needed
Smt. Kamlesh Rani	M — Member	M.A. · Teacher	SCI-02 needed
Sh. Tarsem Lal	M — Member	B.Sc. · Retired	SCI-02 needed

Ludhiana-III is a Centre, so the designations offered are S, P and M. A Sub Centre would offer CT and ACT; a Point, I and AI.

The result is a five-member committee. One dak carries the whole proposal — the SCI-52 with both sections, and an SCI-02 riding with each addition.

The Secretary chooses the topic — the rest follows

- 1 · Choose the topic
- 2 · Fill SCI-52
- 3 · Bio-data x3
- 4 · Check the sheet
- 5 · Submit
- 6 · Put up & sign
- 7 · Up the line

Nothing is on record for Ludhiana-III yet

 — the picker is empty, so all three bio-data are keyed once. From then on they are on the place’s record and can be selected rather than re-typed.

Two ways in, deliberately: select an SCI-02 already on record for that Satsang Place, or key a new one. The form cannot be submitted while any addition is without its bio-data.

SCI-02 — the bio-data, on the official sheet

Numbered 1 to 14 as the printed form is — sewa asked twice, at Beas and at the Centre, then the household. Three of these are filled, one for each proposed member. The page below is the prototype’s own output, cut in two so the whole sheet can be read.

The form is numbered first

SCI-52 is submitted in the form space and takes the number. It locks: no further editing by the office that raised it.

The dak inherits it

When the covering letter is submitted, it takes the same number. One item, one number — the signed sheet and the letter always quote the same reference.

Then it never changes

Not when it moves onward, not if it is returned for correction, not when it is filed.

F and the form number says what it is · 260907 is the date it was raised, written YYMMDD · 0184 is the running number, unique across India for that date. The three SCI-02s ride with it as enclosures; they are not separately numbered.

Written, put up, signed

- 3 · Bio-data ×3
- 4 · Check the sheet
- 5 · Submit
- 6 · Put up & sign
- 7 · Up the line
- 8 · SCI approves
- 9 · Papers issued

- The covering note is written on the dak. A short letter placing the re-constitution for approval; the SCI-52 is its enclosure, by reference.
- Office staff draft and put up. Where a Satsang Place has staff, they prepare and put up; they cannot approve.
- The Secretary signs and it leaves. At Ludhiana-III the Secretary raises it himself — the same screen, one step fewer.
- Where it goes is already settled. By the topic, not by the sender.

4	ZO Zone-II	Sh. Aviraj Singh	Recommended & forwarded
5	SCI Office	Col. Ajay Singh	To approve

Each office sees the dak in its Awaiting me tab and is offered exactly one onward action — Recommend & forward. Only the last office on the route is offered Approve. Nobody can skip a step, and nobody below SCI can decide it. Any of them may instead reply back for correction.

IF SOMETHING IS WRONG

Sending it back — and unlocking the form

- The Area finds a date of initiation missing. It replies to the Satsang Place with a message; the dak leaves its desk and returns to theirs.
- But the SCI-52 is locked. It locked on submission — the raising office cannot simply edit a form that has gone up.
- So the returning office unlocks it. Allow raiser to edit reopens that form, and only that form, for correction. The exception is deliberate and recorded.
- Corrected, it goes up again. Same dak, same number, the whole exchange kept on the record.

- A one-time code is sent to the approving authority’s registered email or mobile — not merely a prior sign-in.
- Several may be cleared on one verification. If the office is approving a tray of dak, one code covers the batch — and each item records that verification in its own trail.
- Not approving is a decision too. It is recorded as such and returns to the raiser, not left in silence.

An Approval Letter

The instrument handed to the committee. It sets out in full who is appointed, who continues, who stands relieved and how the committee now reads — and carries the stamp of the final approving authority.

Duly approved forms

Every SCI form enclosed on the dak gets an approved copy — the official sheet untouched, its own recommendation boxes filled in, and an endorsement page bearing the stamp of every authority in the line.

Open at every level

The Satsang Place, the Area, the State, the Zone and SCI can each open and print both. An office not on the route sees nothing.

The letter travels; the form stays. The Approval Letter goes to the Satsang Place and is handed to the committee, which is why it carries the particulars in full. The SCI-52 remains on the office record. Neither carries a number of its own — both quote the dak’s reference, so one item still has one number. A refusal is treated the same way: a letter is issued saying the proposal has not been approved, with the reason, and the form is endorsed accordingly.

The Approval Letter

The letter is the instrument handed to the committee, so it sets out the whole of what was approved — who is appointed and on whose bio-data, who continues, and how the committee now reads. Nobody types any of it.

AND AFTERWARDS

- The status closes at the raiser. “Approved · decision with the Satsang Place” — an approval is not finished until the office that asked has it back.
- The SCI-52 stays in the form library. Locked, openable as the official sheet, downloadable as PDF.
- The three SCI-02s are now on record for Ludhiana-III — next time these sewadars appear on a form, they are selected, not re-typed.
- Every office’s register shows its own leg. Inward at the Area when it arrived, outward when it went on — drawn from the movement, not separately numbered.

The whole case

1 Choose the topic

Satsang Ghar & Functionaries → Re-constitution of Functionaries. The route, the form and the approving office follow.

2 SCI-52, Section A

Both existing members appear from the place record. Each is marked Continue as is.

3 SCI-52, Section B

Three additions named, each as Member.

4 SCI-02 × 3

Bio-data keyed once for each. Nothing on record for this place yet, so all three are new.

5 Check the sheet

Side by side against the official SCI-52 — the sheet redraws as you type.

6 Submit

The form is numbered F52-260907-0184; the dak inherits it.

7 Put up & sign

The covering note is written, the SCI-52 rides as its enclosure.

8 Up the line

Area → State → Zone recommend. Any may send it back; the form can be unlocked to correct.

9 SCI approves

Verified by a one-time code. The decision returns to the Satsang Place.

WHAT THIS CASE SHOWS

The office states what it wants.

The system carries the rest.

The Secretary named two continuing members and three additions, and keyed three bio-data. The Beas File No., the committee particulars, the official sheet, the number, the route, the four offices, the verification and the return — none of it was chosen by hand.
